PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

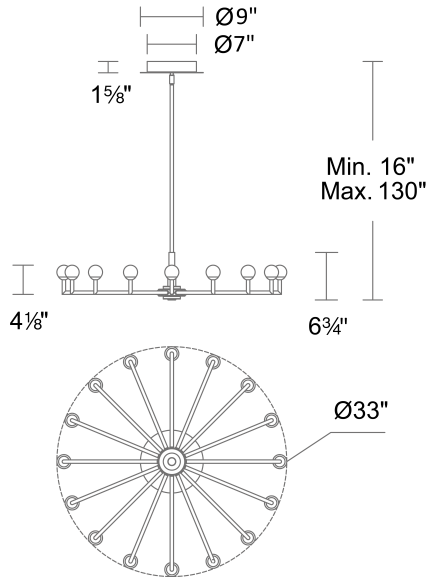

Architectural Drama. Sculptural Light. The Glamis Pendant commands attention with a presence that's as architectural as it is refined. A striking radial design extends outward in perfect symmetry, supporting luminous spheres of alabaster that diffuse light with a soft, natural glow. The result is a chandelier that feels both powerful and poetic — a sculptural centerpiece that defines the space around it. Glamis is meticulously crafted to elevate dining rooms, grand foyers, and gathering spaces with a bold design language that speaks to modern luxury. Engineered with advanced LED technology for high-performance illumination and long-lasting efficiency, it's a statement piece that balances art and innovation with effortless sophistication.
